FROM THE FRONT.

GRANT'S NEW LINE OF MOVEMENT UPON RICHMOND.

PUZZLEMENT OF THE ENEMY AS TO HIS INTENTIONS. SHERIDAN'S CAVALRY RAID.

The steamer Connecticut, Capt. Stranahan, which left the White House at half-past six yesterday morning, arrived here last night at 10 o'clock, bringing up 675 wounded, among whom were 28 officers.

She reports all quiet at the front on Thursday, with the exception of some heavy cannonacing at night.

Gen. Grant is carrying out the new movements upon Richmond with characteristic ac-

Report says that the rebels have within a few days been considerably puzzied by Gen. Grant's movements. They think they see rea. son to believe that Grant proposes to make his new base of supplies on James River at the same time they notice that a strong line of entrenchments is being constructed by us at the White House, indicating a purpose to hold that point.

Nothing is now being landed at the White House except reinforcements, and forage for the immediate use of the army. The quartermaster's department has been pla ed on board of transports, and the headquarters of the same, which was heretofore in a shady grove near the White House is now on poard a steamer. These transports are laying in the stream under the protection of several gun-

The railroad track which had been completed to within a mile or two of the army, has been torn up, and the rails and ties brought back to the White House, where they are being placed on barges. Seven hundred men were first engaged in repairing this road, and about the same number aided in destroying it.

When the Connecticut left the White House ther: were 700 rebel prisoners there, including six colonels and seven majors, under guard of the 7th Indiana colored regiment. These prisoners do not like the idea of being guarded by colored troops, and at times become insolent, but are soon quieted by the negroes, who significantly remind them of Fort Pillow. The megroes seem to take peculiar satisfaction in guarding these prisoners, and watch them with jealous care. Among these prisoners is a woman dressed in military clothes, who is said to have had command of a brigade, with the title of General. There were about 2,000 wounded remaining at the White House yesterday morning, but as there were several hospital steamers in readiness, they are doubtless all on their way up to this city. The wounded brought up in the Connecticut were all very severe cases, and it was found necessary to move the hoat along at moderate speed, as the working of the engine when at full speed affected them unfavorably. One captain and fourteen privates died on the upward trip. Among these wounded there were eighty-five with legs amputated, and twentyseven with arms amputated. The following is a partial list of the wounded officers brought up on this boat: Maj. E A. P. Brewster, 23d Mass; Capt C. P. Boswell, 92d N. Y.; Capt. J. S. Nesbith, 55th Pa.; Capt. A. S. Harding, 122d Ohio; Capt. P. S. Blodgett, 10th Vt., Capt. G. Farr, 13th N. H.; Capt. H. P. Woodbury, 23d Mass.; Capt. N. Shackford, 12th N. H., and Lieut Clark Smith, Aid-de-camp on Gen. Martindale's staff. Nothing has been heard from Sheridan, who

(as we stated yesterday) has gone on another ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED.

The steamers Winonah and City of Albany have arrived up from the White House, the first bringing up 299 wounded, and the latter 360. On the latter boat there were a number of sick, among whom were some of the colored troops of Burnside's corps. One or two of the colored had been wounded while on picket duty. Several officers (some sick) were also on board, among them Col. Raymond and Lieut. G. F Gould, 2d New York mounted rifles; Lieut. H. M. Bearce, 32d Maine; Lieut. R. R. Beachman, 23d colored troops; Lieut. G. W. Gibson, 17th Vermont; Lient. John C Whitman, 24th New York cavalry; Lieut. A. Pinder, 59th Massachusetts.

RETURNING HOME.

The propeller New Jersey yesterday brought up the 1st Rhode Island battery, who have served their term out-on their way home. This battery came out with about 150 men, and several hundred men have been attached to it curing its term, of whom only about 50 remain.

MOBE WOUNDED ARRIVED. The steamer Monitor arrived at 8 o'clock this morning from the White House with about 100 wounded from the late fights.

A BLOCKADE RUNNER CAPTURED AFTER A DESPERATE RESISTANCE. Acting Vol. Lieut. W. B. Eaton, commanding the U.S. steamer Admiral, writing from on board that vessel, off Velasco, Texas, under date of May 25th, informs the Navy Department of the capture of the blockade runner Isabel, on the night of the 25th ultimo, while attempting to run into the port of Galveston. The Isabel is a steamer of much notoriety, having made upwards of twenty successful trips between Havana and the ports of Mobile and Galveston. The chase between the Admiral and the Isabel was an arduous one. The night being dark, it was with great difficulty the Isabel could be kept in sight, and her commander handled ber with great skill and desperate courage, not surrendering until he had received two broadsides at short range, every shot hitting his vessel, and he fire from the small arms of the Admiral literally driving the men from the wheel. One of the Isabel's crew was badly wounded, and it was found neces-sary to amputate his left arm and three fingers of his right hand.

The Isabel is one of the three steamers which ran out from Galveston on the night of the 30th of April last. She had a cargo of powder, arms, Prussian caps and medicines. During the chase she threw the powder overboard.

[The bill provides that in case of division of opinion between the judges in any matter which cannot by law be certified to the supreme court, the opinion of the presiding judge shall pre-vail, and be the judgment of the circuit court.

On motion of Mr. Lane, of Kansas, a resolution was adopted requesting the President to furnish the Senate copies of correspondence, orders and documents on file in the Department in regard to the organization of the free State Government of Arkansas.

LOCAL NEWS.

OBLITERATING THE MALL-A bill was passed n the House of Representatives on Wednesday which, we are informed, requires the corporate anthorities of the city of Washington to open Sixth street west from the Canal to Maine avenue, under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Buildings, in accordance with the plan approved in May, 1822, by James Monroe, President of the United States. We were not aware that President Monroe ever approved any such innovation on the plan of the Mall, but were under the impression that the passages through the Mall were restricted to the four new open. The Mall was designed for an ample park, and not to be cut up into small squares, which, after being so reduced, will, by the passion for "improvement," be converted into building lots, and the park gradually obliterated. The new thoroughfare which it is now proposed to cut through the Mall, on the line of Sixth street, is only one hundred and thirty-one yards from the great thoroughfare of Seventh street, and, so far from encroaching further on that beautiful feature of the city plan, the Mall, it is a pity that either the Smithsonian buildings or the unsightly Armory were allowed to be placed on it. The eastern portion, which it is proposed to divide in two by a street, had better be kept intact as a parade ground or champ de mars, the Armory having already been placed on the south side of it.—Intelligencer.

THE GOLD CASE .- In the Circuit Court (Judge Wylie,) the case of J. W. Thompson & Bro. agt. Riggs & Keickerffer is on trial. This is an action to recover an amount of gold and silver coin deposited by the plaintiffs in the banking-house of the defendants since the suspension of specie payments, which the latter refuse to pay in kind, tendering in lieu thereof legal tender notes; assuming that under the law of July 11th, 1862, they are not obliged to pay coin for coin. This morning the plaintiff offered to show that it was the custom in other banks to pay out coin for coin deposited, but this offer was refused as irrelevant. A tender of the amount in legal tender was also made this morning, but was refused by the plaintiffs. Messrs. J. H. Bradley and N. Wilson for plaintiffs, and W. D. Davidge and W. S. Cox for defendants.

FILLING THE CANAL WITH SLOPS.—This morning, Samuel Taylor, colored, was arrested by officer Pendel for throwing two wagon loads of slops into the canal. Taylor plead that he was employed at the Armory Hospital to carry away the slops, and that he was ordered by Capt. Cowen to throw it in the canal. Justice Giberson fined him $2.58. His statement was corroborated by an officer from the hospital, who stated that it was done ignorantly. Mayor Wallach ordered the dismissal of the case, and the Seventh Ward Commissioner will designate such a place for the deposite of the slops as will not cause a violation of law. and will save the inmates of the hospital from enduring the stench that would arise from the canal during the hot weather.

ORPHANS' COURT.—In consequence of the indisposition of Judge Purcell this Court was not in session to-day.

MISS CHARLOTTE THOMPSON-Opinions of the Press.—A sensation has been created at the St. Louis Theater. Never, since Matilda Heron played her first engagement in this city, have we witnessed so much enthusiasm in a theater, as is now elicited by the unique per-formances of Miss Charlotte Thompson. We are entirely unacquainted with past history of this young lady, would our present purpose be served by know-ing it minutely. She came here a perfect stranger, and she has rapidly won her way isto public favor without the usual system of to public favor without the usual system of advertising, which commonly precedes such events. What she has accomplished she owes entirely to her intrinsic merit, and the appreciative qualities of a St. Louis audience. The verdict of our theater-going public has been endorsed in more than one instance by the metropolitan audiences of the East, and we desire to place it on record that she brilliant success of Charlotte Thompson in the city will be followed by like results wherever she goes. True merit cannot remain bidden and unob. CHILD TOTAL TOTAL served foreyer. It may struggle a long time in obscurity, but the light which it emits will eventually dazzle the eyes of all beholders. Like a smothered fire, the flames will in time burst through all opposing obstructions, and sparkle aloft with tenfold heat and brillinger, And as passion long pent up will subdue every obstacle, so will patient, plodding merit, when recognised, triumph over all embarrassments we do not know what difficulties Miss Thompson may have had to pass through in her professional career, nor how long she has been a devotee to the Drama. But we do know that she is an artiste in the strictest and most comprehensive sense of that term, and that see idolizes her profession. To attain the excelsumed long years of toil and study, which, without a love of art, would have been impossible. Excellence in any branch of art is only attainable by labor Natural talent has very little to do with perfection in anything, direct. y; it merely inspires love, and fires the mind to dare the achievment of seeming impossibilities, which everyone encounters on the road to true greatness. Charlotte Thompson, what. ever may have been her patural qualifications for the stage, must have labored immensely, and we are happy to state she is now reaping her reward in well-earned fame.

A structure built upon such toundation is not likely to fall. Such a palace of art has all the elements of stability. We conceive that her fame will prove anything but ephemeral. She has none of the flashing qualities of a rocket or meteor; but is a star of the first magnitude, and will move steadily on ward in her orbit, from the horizon where she now stands to the zegith In face and figure, Charlotte Thompson is beautifuil; and her features are radiantly ex. pressive of intellect. Nature has gifted her with eyes which enthrall by their wondrons depth, and fascinate by their mild light. They seem, by their silent language, to translate the pure tablets of her soul .- St. Louis Republican,

Miss Charlotte Thompson will make her first appearance at Grover's Theater on Monday evening next, June 13th, in her original character of Little Barefoot, on which occasion our theater going public may expect a rich treat.
